However, the Queen's Lane Coffee House, which has been selling coffee since 1655, is the longest established coffee house in England. Twenty-five years after the first place opened, another 3,000 had been established in Britain. Over the years, they also acted as social centres and places where business has been done. If you have had the chance to drink in a historic cafe, you will have experienced the special atmosphere. Even before your first sip you will have been transported to another era.
