

Chapter 15 Notes

AP GOV

The Judiciary - Back then, the federal judiciary had no effect on the daily lives of citizens because of its limited jurisdiction

- Now all major policy issues, social, economic, and political, too will end up in the courts, where judges interpret laws.
- "The interpretation of the laws is the proper and peculiar province of the courts. A constitution is in fact, and must be, regarded by the judges as a fundamental law."

What Do Courts Do? - In our government, both the national government and state governments are sovereign. Each can make their own laws, etc.

- Judges are responsible for solving issues within the state.
- Law is a body of rules established by government officials that bind governments, individuals, and nongovernmental organizations.
- Meant to create a peaceful, stable society.
- All laws must comply with the U.S. Constitution
- Common law is judge-made law grounded in tradition and previous judicial decisions.
- When no law is specifically written for judges to use, they use their basic knowledge of the norms of justice and fairness to resolve disputes, that is common law.
- This system stemmed from England and was built on, even using their common law at first.
- "The genius of the common law in the United States has been its capacity to evolve over time..."
- Constitutions regulate the behavior of governments and their interactions with their citizens.
- U.S. Constitution is the supreme law of the land.
- National treaties and laws cannot violate it
- State constitutions cannot violate it
- To resolve legal disputes, there is an adversarial judicial system.
- Trial courts are the basic and first level of resolving disputes and issues
