

Chemistry Current Event Project

Purpose: To learn how chemistry is used in the real world and the impact it has on our local, state, national, and global communities.

Due Date:

Directions:

- A. You will find and read 5 current event articles which are related to chemistry. Together they must cover the following criteria:
 1. Be current: Within the last year
 2. Have an impact on our local community.
 3. Have an impact on our state community.
 4. Have an impact on our national community.
 5. Have an impact on our global community.
 6. Discuss research in chemistry which is happening somewhere in the world except for the USA.
 7. All 5 articles must represent a different chemistry topic.

Articles may not specifically indicate the impact on society, but you can infer from your knowledge or research further to help you hypothesize how it could impact society.

- B. For each article you will need to complete a current event form. They must be typed.
- C. Provide a working url to the article.
- D. Select one article and create an awareness infographic or poster about the impact (good or bad) it has on the local, state, national, and/or global community. Infographics/Posters need to be colorful, eye-catching, organized, and informative. The infographic or poster should clearly indicate how the chemistry topic impacts society.
