Reformatory Handbook for Safety and Security Measures in South African Schools Thaba Kgomotlokoa Linda, 2013-09-19

This handbook serves as a tool to equip the school principal and other educational management on how safety and security risks can be identified assessed and mitigated It aims to provide practical guide on safety and security measures in South African schools The book is based on study conducted in South African schools which explored a variety of school risk exposure inter alia drugs and alcohol usage and abuse possession of dangerous weapons bullying by assaulting and insulting other learners school vandalism school strikes and riots risk of fire and evacuation procedures and theft The book also explored risk control measures such as school fencing detection tools strong rooms and HIV AIDS facilities Fighting for Empowerment in an Age of Violence Boskovic, Milica, Misev, Gordana, Putnik, Nenad, 2022-06-30 In today's modern world persistent violence against vulnerable groups and minorities permeates societies making it difficult for them to flourish Empowering these groups has never been more important as society attempts to evolve and focus on inclusion To understand the best practices and challenges of empowerment for minorities further study is required Fighting for Empowerment in an Age of Violence analyzes the different forms of violence against vulnerable groups and minorities states their civil rights and illustrates the forms of weakening and violence supported by authorities against their own citizens The book also highlights the challenges for people marked as unequal or weak and the possibilities that the 21st century offers to empower them Covering topics such as gender roles political violence societal security and globalization this reference work is ideal for government officials sociologists psychologists politicians security experts activists researchers academicians practitioners scholars educators and students Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 Climate Change and Children's Rights in Zimbabwe Emmanuel Ndhlovu, Clement Chipenda, 2026-02-14 This volume Climate Change and Children's Rights in Zimbabwe Toward Social Policy Based Interventions provides a comprehensive examination of the intersection between climate change and children's rights in Zimbabwe one of the world's most climate vulnerable nations It brings together diverse perspectives from sociology law development studies anthropology economics and environmental sciences to challenge conventional approaches that treat children as passive victims of climate impacts The book interrogates climate vulnerability through multiple dimensions from legal frameworks and theoretical foundations to sectoral impacts and innovative adaptation strategies showcasing transformative pathways for child centred climate action that recognises children as rights holders and active agents of change The book outlines critical aspects and issues that must be understood and addressed to protect and advance children's rights in the face of accelerating environmental change Attention is given to both persistent structural inequalities and innovative opportunities for building resilience through rights based gender transformative and community grounded approaches Through case studies spanning diverse districts including Lupane Bikita Mbire Chivi Mashonaland Central Gutu Goromonzi Zvimba and others it highlights how climate impacts manifest differently across Zimbabwe's varied ecological and socio-economic landscapes affecting children's health, education, nutrition, protection and overall well-being. It provides foundational perspectives into climate justice imperatives, multispecies justice frameworks, legal and policy gaps and opportunities for transformative social policy that centres children's agency and Indigenous knowledge systems. The book is of interest to researchers, climate justice scholars, child rights advocates, development practitioners, humanitarian organisations and policymakers committed to implementing more effective, equitable and contextually appropriate climate responses that place children's rights at the centre of all climate action across Zimbabwe and the broader African continent.

A Military History of the Cold War, 1962-1991 Jonathan M. House, 2020-09-24
Study of the Cold War all too often shows us the war that wasn't fought. The reality of course is that many hot conflicts did occur, some with the great powers' weapons and approval, others without. It is this reality and this period of quasi-war and semiconflict that Jonathan M. House plumbs in A Military History of the Cold War 1962-1991, a complex case study in the Clausewitzian relationship between policy and military force during a time of global upheaval and political realignment. This volume opens a new perspective on three fraught decades of Cold War history, revealing how the realities of time, distance, resources and military culture often constrained and diverted the inclinations or policies of world leaders. In addition to the Vietnam War and nuclear confrontations between the USSR and the United States, this period saw dozens of regional wars and insurgencies fought throughout Asia, Africa and Latin America. Cuba, Pakistan, Indonesia, Israel, Egypt and South Africa pursued their own goals in ways that drew the superpowers into regional disputes. Even clashes ostensibly unrelated to the politics of East-West confrontation, such as the Nigerian Biafran conflict, the Falklands/Malvinas War and the Indonesian occupation of East Timor, involved armed forces, weapons and tactics developed for the larger conflict and thus come under House's scrutiny. His study also takes up nontraditional or specialized aspects of the period, including weapons of mass destruction, civil-military relations, civil defense and control of domestic disorders. The result is a single, integrated survey and analysis of a complex period in geopolitical history which fills a significant gap in our knowledge of the organization, logistics, operations and tactics involved in conflict throughout the Cold War.
