

STUDENT CASE STUDY PROJECT GUIDELINES

Purpose of the Assignment:

The purpose of this assignment is twofold: first, to provide you with the opportunity to do a focused analysis of one student using the management framework discussed in our seminars; and second, to provide you with practice in using data gathering strategies that will help you learn essential information necessary in order to teach students effectively. This is particularly important for the teacher working in a diverse classroom setting where students come from cultures and speak languages with which the teacher is unfamiliar and have contextual issues that must be considered in order to help them succeed. I hope that this case study work will challenge your assumptions/beliefs about the learners in your class, their needs and capabilities.

Literature Search: embed within Final Paper

Read at least 3 refereed articles (beyond those assigned in class) that help you to develop a knowledge base related to the issues facing this student. Begin as soon as you have a some hypotheses regarding issues with which this child is coping. Find readings throughout the semester as it will help you on a day-to-day basis to work more effectively with this student. Your completion of the literature search will be evidenced by your reference to readings within your final reflection paper.

Activity #1: Description of student

Write-up a description of your case study child, using the following questions to guide you. Do not gather any data yet.

1. Describe the student's physical appearance.
2. Why did you choose this student as your case study? What behaviors does s/he exhibit that are of concern?
3. What do you think you know about this student?
4. What do you think his/her strengths are?
5. What do you think his/her weaknesses are?
6. How comfortable do you feel with this student? Why or why not?
7. Write down at least 5 questions you have about this student.
