

BSG Guide – How to Win the Business Strategy Game

📅 9. October 2017 (<http://www.finstar.de/bsg-guide-how-to-win/>) 👤 Fin Glowick
(<http://www.finstar.de/author/wpadmin/>)

You are playing the BSG but do not want to read the 35-page Player's Manual (<http://www.bsg-online.com/users/PlayersGuide.pdf>)? Or you have read it but still do not know what strategy to pursue or what is going on? I feel you. In this blog post, I will run you through everything important that you have to know about the BSG and how to win it. The most important advice in advance: it is all about PROFIT.

Your Strategy for the BSG

Before you even start plugging in any numbers, it is important that you decide for a strategy to pursue for the game. Even more important is, to stick to it! I have encountered two successful strategies so far: medium-quality shoes (S/Q rating of 5-6 stars) paired with high number of models (250-350 models) and high-quality shoes (S/Q rating of 8-10 stars) paired with low number of models (50 models). For this blog post, I will concentrate on the high-quality + low model strategy. I personally find it easier to pursue and had more success with it in the past. However, you can successfully apply most of the following tips to either strategy. Even though this game is said to be a business simulation, get rid of the thought that all decisions have to make sense and be logical. You will soon know why. With the high-quality shoes + low model strategy, the only thing you care about is your PROFIT. Everything else like earnings per share (EPS), return on equity (ROE), and image rating (IR) will automatically follow. After clicking on the green "Go to Decisions/Reports"-button in the corporate lobby, you can see your profits in the lower left-hand corner.

Projected Year 13 Performance
Scoring Measures	Year 13	Investor Expect.
Earnings Per Share	$8.40	$3.05
Return On Equity	26.2%	15.0%
Credit Rating	A+	B+
Image Rating	79	70
Other Measures	Year 13	Change from Y12
