

American Vision, Ch. 3 Guided Reading

Review

Christopher Columbus sailed his ship across the Atlantic sea, which led to exploration of the Americas. Other explorers followed in the Americas. Visionary entrepreneurs, inventors, and other followers operated in the competitive marketplace, and their success or failure depended on their abilities. The American way has changed in each of these periods, but, generally, individualism, hard work, and the pursuit of happiness have been the dominant values. The quest for individualism and the quest for happiness have been the dominant values of the American way. The quest for individualism and the quest for happiness have been the dominant values of the American way.
