Section 2 – Revolution Brings Reform and Terror

- 1. What were the Rights of Man?

They established a political society, administered through a man.
- 2. Why did the National Assembly reject absolute monarchy?

Their ideas centered on elected civic administrators and financial institutions led the French Revolutionaries to abolish the monarchy.
- 3. Why did Louis XVI sign the Declaration?

In 1791, faced with a great financial crisis, the king accepted the demands of the Estates General as the people. Louis thus gave revolutionary powers to the new and great National Assembly that replaced the King.
- 4. What government did the Legislative Assembly create?

The new government consisted of representatives who met in the National Assembly. The new government had the power to make laws and set taxes, including the National Assembly.
- 5. What steps did the government take to improve relations with other governments such as England?

The revolutionary government rejected all the former monarch's treaties. The people of France declared that they were the King and Queen and the ruling power. France rejected monarchy and accepted the revolutionary principles.
- 6. How did the Legislative Assembly use rights from their general elections. What steps did they take to improve them?

The Legislative Assembly was made up of three groups: the First Estate (the clergy or church), the Second Estate (the nobles), and the Third Estate (the commoners). Each group had the same amount of voting power.
- 7. What were the principal demands made?

The revolutionary leaders had demands for all the rights of the people. The new French Republic had the demands of the people. The demands were to end the monarchy, to set up a new government, and to set up a new constitution.
- 8. Why were other European nations concerned about the events taking place in France?
