

Chapter 26: Cold War America, 1945-1960

1945 Yalta and Potsdam conferences

Allied leaders met, in February and July, respectively, to plan the shape of postwar Europe. Truman had replaced Roosevelt in April, and at Potsdam he took a harder line against Stalin than FDR had. It was at Potsdam that Truman heard of the successful testing of the atomic bomb. Harry S Truman succeeds Roosevelt as president. A middle-of-the-road replacement for FDR's liberal Vice-President Henry Wallace in 1944, Truman assumed office uninformed about recent affairs, but he quickly took charge of some of the century's most important presidential decisions.

End of World War II

Shortly after Hitler committed suicide, Germany surrendered on May 8 (V-E Day). The dropping of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki contributed to the Japanese surrender on August 10 (V-J Day).

1946 Kennan sends "Long Telegram" outlining containment policy.

The longtime observer of the Soviet Union warned against Soviet expansion and outlined a policy to resist it.

Churchill's "Iron Curtain" speech

The wartime British prime minister provided a metaphor for the developing Cold War.

Baruch Plan for international control of atomic weapons fails.

The Soviet Union was not willing to accept the terms proposed by Baruch, which would continue to give the United States nuclear predominance. Employment Act. This act established the policy of federal intervention in the economy, for example, lowering taxes to stimulate the economy and raising them to slow inflation.

1947 Taft-Hartley Act

The Republican Congress passed this act over Truman's veto. Its purpose was to reduce the power of labor unions by, among other things, banning the closed shop and encouraging states to pass "right to work" laws.

Truman Doctrine

In response to the Greek civil war, Truman announced that the United States would fight communism wherever it was seen to be trying to undermine established governments outside the U.S. sphere of influence.
