

The service takes us on a journey: (A) God gathers us all together, God meets us through (B) the Bible and (C) communion, and then (D) God sends us out again!

All Together

1. While we sing, the choir and ministers process to their places.

2. The minister greets the people in the Lord's name ('The Lord be with you') and the people greet the minister ('and also with you').

3. We can meet with God because he sent his Son Jesus to die for our sins. In response we confess our sins to God. The minister assures us of God's forgiveness. We might sing again (perhaps using an ancient hymn, the Gloria: 'Glory to God in the highest').

4. This part of the service finishes with a prayer.
