

The Crucible

Act Three
Handout 6

Name _____

Date _____ Hour _____

Plot: Act Three

Plot is the series of events that make up the story. A lot happens in Act Three, and it is easy to get the order of things confused.

Directions: Use your ability to know the order of things by connecting the following sequence of events. Number the events from 1 to 10 with a pencil. Use the first blank line to write the first event. If you get stuck, an illustration of the setting and setting may help. The first and last events have been labeled for you.

1. _____ John Proctor leaves the room. Elizabeth is pregnant.
2. _____ Elizabeth and John leave the courtroom.
3. _____ Elizabeth leaves the court to go to the village of an old friend.
4. _____ Elizabeth leaves the court and her husband has.
5. _____ The girls appear. Elizabeth works in an adjoining room.
6. _____ John Proctor returns to the room of the girls.
7. _____ Elizabeth talks with the court.
8. _____ Elizabeth Proctor leaves her knowledge of John's address.
9. _____ Elizabeth tells Elizabeth that he is involved in a crime.
10. _____ John Proctor returns to the court.

The above events do not represent all of the events included in Act Three. You may add other events that take place in the act. Number where the events would fit in the above sequence of events.

Additional Event	Where it fits in the sequence of events

Reader Response in Secondary and College Classrooms Nicholas J. Karolides,2013-04-15 This text based on Louise M Rosenblatt s transactional model of literature focuses on the application of transactional reader response theory in the classroom It grows from frequent requests from secondary school and college teachers for teaching suggestions on how to put theory into practice This is not a What should I do on Monday cookbook but an expression of the practice of theory in college and secondary school classrooms The chapters portray a spectrum of strategies including biopoems expressive and imaginative writing journal writing readers theater role playing and unsent letters using as examples individual works from several genres Recognizing that teachers who may have been trained in other theories and methodologies may be hesitant about their quite different role and expectations in the reader centered classroom the authors provide stepping stones to develop readiness and confidence suggestions and insights to ease the transition to the transactional model of teaching and learning Pedagogical features An explanatory introduction to each section defines its orientation and describes the content and direction of the chapters it contains Invitations elicit engagement of readers with concepts attitudes or strategies presented in the chapters they invite readers as individuals or members of a small group to consider ideas or to practice a strategy among other activities in order to enhance understandings A glossary defines key concepts and strategies discussed in the text A bibliography provides an extensive list of resources books and journal articles both theoretical and applied New in the second edition Six new chapters three deal with the roles of film as literature in the English classroom and three with enhancing multicultural understandings Updates and revisions to several chapters that appeared in the first edition Invitations new in this edition have been added to focus and expand readers thinking
