- Have you used a variety of forms, words, and structures (as appropriate to the task)?
- Is your vocabulary rich, precise, and varied, showing some of expansion?
- Have you displayed a command of language conventions, correct punctuation, correct structure, spelling, and pronunciation?
- Is the register chosen or inferred highly appropriate?
- In speaking, have you used excellent pronunciation and a high level of fluency without gaps?

Access AP Spanish Language writing guidelines, print them, and refer to them often as you prepare for each free response writing, write the descriptions of the task completion, topic development, and language use descriptions in each of the rubrics, they are available in PDF format at apcentral.collegeboard.org, the PDF file contains sample exam questions, journal entries, and writing guidelines for personal review.

Section I – Multiple Choice

Part A1: Listening – Short Dialogues & Narratives

Short dialogues and narratives are spoken on a recording, followed by multiple-choice questions. The questions are spoken on the recording but not printed in the test booklet, the answer choices are printed in the booklet.

Strategies

- Listen and take notes. The answer choices in front of you, and the questions, always read after the system before you have to listen. Write down the information you will need.
- The questions you will write – words used in the recording may lead you to the wrong choice, do not select an answer choice just because you heard a particular word, use reasoning and logic.
- Do your best to follow along, do not fall behind when answering the questions after the dialogues.
- Don't worry about taking notes just then and try to remember the content of the dialogues.
- Use process of elimination to rule out wrong answers.

Part A2: Listening – Long Dialogues & Narratives

Long dialogues and narratives are spoken on a recording. The questions and answers are not printed in the booklet, the questions are not spoken.

Strategies

- These dialogues are longer, try not to lose focus.
- You will have two minutes to read the questions and answer choices prior to hearing the recording, use the full two minutes to read the questions and note down each or writing and other general information.
- Take notes while listening to the dialogues/narratives.
- Use the strategies for multiple-choice questions as you go on take notes and answer later, as you practice for the exam, figure out which method works best for you.
- Do not linger on previous phrases or words you heard and did not understand, focus on the next idea.
