

Diary of Samuel Pepys– *Reports of the Plague in Europe

19th Oct 1663

Sir W. Batten and I took coach, and to the Coffee-house in Cornhill; where much talk about the Turk's proceedings, and that the plague is got to Amsterdam, brought by a ship from Argier; and it is also carried to Hambrough.

16th June 1664

The talk upon the 'Change is, that De Ruyter is dead, with fifty men of his own ship, of the plague, at Cales...

22nd June 1664

At noon to the 'Change and Coffee-house, where great talke of the Dutch preparing of sixty sayle of ships. The plague grows mightily among them, both at sea and land.

25th July 1664

Thence back again homewards, and Sir W. Batten and I to the Coffee-house, but no newes; only the plague is very hot still, and encreases among the Dutch.

Diary of Samuel Pepys – *The Plague arrives in London

30th April 1665

Great fears of the Sickenesses here in the City, it being said that two or three houses are already shut up. God preserve us all.

7th June 1665

This day, much against my Will, I did in Drury-lane see two or three houses marked with a red cross upon the doors, and "Lord have mercy upon us" writ there – which was a sad sight to me, being the first of that kind that to my remembrance I ever saw. It put me into an ill conception of myself and my smell, so that I was forced to buy some roll tobacco to smell to and chew – which took away the apprehension.

10th June 1665

In the evening home to supper, and there to my great trouble hear that the plague is come into the City (though it hath these three or four weeks since its beginning been wholly out of the City); but where should it begin but in my good friend and neighbour's, Dr Burnett in Fanchurch-street – which in both points troubles me mightily.
