

Easter Reading Comprehension

Passage

As the sun began to set, families gathered for a religious service at the church. They sang hymns and listened to the priest's sermon about the importance of Easter and what it meant to the Christian community. After the service, the families returned home, tired but happy after a wonderful day. They sat around the table, enjoying a delicious Easter dinner.

The children talked about their day while the adults discussed the service. Finally, it was time; the children went to sleep about the next Easter, happy and remembering everyone in Spring.

EASTER DAY

Once upon a time, in a small town called Springfield, everyone was getting ready for Easter day. The sun was shining brightly, and the flowers were blooming in different colors. Children were decorating eggs with their families, and the town square was decorated with colorful ribbons and balloons.

On Easter day, families gathered at the town square to celebrate. They were dressed in their best clothes, and the children were excited to see the Easter bunny. Suddenly, the Easter bunny appeared hopping around and spreading joy to the children. He had a big basket of eggs that he gave to the children, who were overjoyed with their colorful and shiny eggs. As the day went on, there were Easter egg hunts, games, and a picnic. Everyone enjoyed the delicious food and the beautiful scenery. In the afternoon, there was a parade, and the children were marching behind the Easter bunny.
