Private History in Public Tammy S. Gordon,2010-01-16 In small community museums truck stops restaurants bars barbershops schools and churches people create displays to tell the histories that matter to them Much of this history is personal family history community history history of a trade or the history of something considered less than genteel It is often history based on the historical record but also based on feelings beliefs and memory It is neglected history Private History in Public is about those history exhibits that complicate the public private dichotomy exhibits that serve to explain communities families and individuals to outsiders and tie insiders together through a shared narrative of historical experience Tammy S Gordon looks beyond the large professionalized museum exhibits that have dominated scholarship in museum studies and public history and offers a new way of understanding the broad spectrum of exhibition types in the United States
