The Implications of Power. What Contemporary Neoconservatives Learned from History Hannes Schweikardt, 2014-03-25 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject History America grade 13 University of Tübingen Seminar für Zeitgeschichte course Readings in Recent American Military History SS 2012 language English abstract This thesis analyzes 50 central texts from the five neoconservative writers Charles Krauthammer William Kristol Robert Kagan Richard Perle and Norman Podhoretz to portrait their contributions to the public debate about foreign policy after the Cold War At the heart of the analysis lies the preemptive strike launched on Iraq in March 2003 and its aftermath All of the authors under research have openly advocated this decision prior to the invasion one main question for this thesis is therefore how they assessed the actual implementation of the strategy and its consequences The central Chapter 2 on the assessment of Iraq seeks to answer what they have learned from Iraq Before I can answer this adequately it is necessary to analyze their writings prior to 9/11 and then between 9/11 and the invasion of Iraq I will do this in Chapter 1 and thereby answer the question what broader lessons the authors have learned from history Knowing the answer is necessary to understand why they proposed a preemptive strike on Iraq and what their intentions were Chapter 3 then seeks to connect these insights from Chapter 1 and 2 to shed light on the overall lessons that the authors have learned from their experiences since the end of the Cold War and 8 years of foreign policy under president George W Bush As a result we will have an imperfect yet comprehensive overview of neoconservative thinking on American foreign policy since the end of the Cold War There is a host of literature on different aspects of the Iraq war that also frequently raise the question to what extent decisions in the administration were actively influenced or taken by neoconservatives However I could not find an analysis of neoconservative texts before and after Iraq I therefore claim that there is a mismatch between the acclaimed influence of neoconservatism and the extent to which neoconservative writers assessment of the Iraq war has been analyzed In this thesis I intend to fill this gap with extensive study of original sources instead of secondary literature
