

Contemporary Classics Study Questions

PART I

Chapter 1

1. Describe Okonkwo's position in the clan and his personality.
Okonkwo is a wealthy and respected warrior of the Umuofia clan, a lower Nigerian tribe that is part of a consortium of nine connected villages, including Okonkwo's village, Iguedo. In his youth, he brought honor to his village by beating Amalinze the Cat in a wrestling contest. Until his match with Okonkwo, the Cat had been undefeated for seven years.
2. Describe Okonkwo's father.
His father is named Unoka. Okonkwo is completely unlike his now deceased father, Unoka, who feared the sight of blood and was a debtor, always borrowing and losing money, which meant that his wife and children often went hungry. Unoka was, however, a skilled flute player and had a gift for, and love of, language. By the standards of the clan, Unoka was a coward and a spendthrift. He never took a title in his life, he borrowed money from his clansmen, and he rarely repaid his debts. He never became a warrior because he feared the sight of blood. Moreover, he died of an abominable illness. On the positive side, Unoka appears to have been a talented musician and gentle, if idle. He may well have been a dreamer, ill-suited to the chauvinistic culture into which he was born. The novel opens ten years after his death.

Chapter 2

3. What does Okonkwo think when he hears the gong?
He wonders what was amiss, and he sensed in the crier's voice that it may be a tragedy.
4. Summarize the conflict with Mbaino and explain how it is resolved.
A daughter (women) of Umuofia (their town), the wife of Ogbuefi Udo, went the market in Mbaino and was killed. It was resolved with the normal course of action, a letter sent to Mbaino and asked them to chose between war or offering a young man as compensation.
5. Describe how Okonkwo runs his household and explain his reasons for acting this way.
He runs his house with a heavy hand. His wives, especially his youngest, as well as his children lived in perpetual fear of his fiery temper. He also showed his prosperity, and people respected him and did not question him, such as his wives. His reasons for acting this way are that his whole life was dominated by fear, the fear of failure and weakness, and the failure of himself. He wanted to be everything his father was not.
6. Why do you think Okonkwo's oldest son is becoming "a sad-faced youth"?
He is becoming "a sad-faced youth" because his father is correcting him by nagging and beating him since his father had great anxiety for his growing or developing laziness.
