SUMMARIZING INFORMATION

11. At first, the Romans allowed Jewish kings to rule Judah. However, in 6 C.E. the emperor Augustus tightened the empire's grip on the kingdom, changing its name to Judaea and placing a Roman governor in control of it.
12. Some Jews cooperated with the Romans. Others limited their contact with them. Still others ignored them and established communities in remote places far from Roman rule. Some, called Zealots, fought the Romans for their freedom.
13. Christianity was a religion based on the teachings of a Jew named Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus traveled throughout Galilee and Judaea with 12 disciples, preaching that people should love God and one another. Some Jews found comfort in his teachings and believed he was the messiah, or promised deliverer. Others thought he was deceitful and opposed him. The Roman rulers saw him as a threat to their authority. They had him executed and often persecuted his followers.
14. In 312 C.E., the Roman emperor Constantine said that he dreamed that he would win a battle he was about to wage. When he won that battle, he credited the Christian God for his victory. The following year, he and his co-emperor issued the Edict of Milan, which allowed all religious groups, including Christians, to practice their beliefs freely. Constantine supported the growth of Christianity. Eighty years later, in 392 C.E., the emperor Theodosius banned Greek and Roman religions and made Christianity the official faith of the Roman Empire.
15. Like the Roman Empire, the Church was organized as a hierarchy. The clergy were the leaders of the church. By 300 C.E., clergy called priests led worship services and managed local church activities. Clergy called bishops supervised groups of churches called dioceses. Above bishops were clergy called archbishops, and the five leading archbishops were called patriarchs. By 600 C.E., the bishop of Rome claimed power over the entire Christian Church. He was called the pope, from a Latin word meaning "father."
16. The western Christian churches accepted the authority of the pope. The eastern Christian churches did not accept the authority of the pope, and also thought that the Byzantine emperor had a role in leading the church. In 1054 C.E. the two sets of churches underwent a bitter schism, or split, formally becoming two separate churches, the Roman Catholic Church in the west and the Greek Orthodox Church in the east.
