

West Coast LEAF Position Paper: Access to Abortion and Contraception

March 2013

- 1. Women's equality rights under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms cannot be realized without access to safe, legal and publicly funded abortion care. Women's autonomy over their bodies and freedom to choose if and when to have children is paramount. The state has no role limiting women's reproductive choices or compelling women to have children against their will, either through legislative measures or by failing to ensure equal and adequate access to reproductive health care, including abortions.

Access to abortion care is a fundamental issue of women's equality. Only women become pregnant, bear children, breastfeed, and are disproportionately responsible for child care. The decision whether and when to become pregnant and bear children impacts on women's autonomy, privacy, economic security, health and safety.

Women's reproductive rights include the right to control their own fertility and the right to be free from coercion in their reproductive choices. Women's reproductive rights also include the right to make informed decisions and to give informed consent to any medical intervention affecting them.

Barriers to accessing abortion care undermine women's equality rights. Denied the ability to make their own reproductive choices, women do not have autonomy over their own lives and are prevented from full and equal participation in Canadian society. Women cannot truly exercise their constitutional and fundamental human rights without accessible, safe, and publicly funded abortion care that is available to all women, without restriction or barriers.

The Supreme Court of Canada made clear in 1988 that the criminalization of abortion is a violation of a woman's right to security of the person, protected by section 7 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.¹ Safe, legal and publicly funded abortion care is also guaranteed under the Canada Health Act.

Interfaith Advocacy Katherine E. Knutson, 2014-02-05 Using the historic Minnesota state government shutdown of 2011 as a backdrop Interfaith Advocacy describes the work of the Joint Religious Legislative Coalition an interfaith advocacy group that brings together leaders from Catholic Protestant Jewish and Muslim traditions to advocate on behalf of a range of policies As the nation s first statewide interfaith lobbying group the story of the JRLC facilitates an examination of the role of political advocacy groups in state level American politics what they are how and why they form how they mobilize citizens to participate in the political process how they work to influence government and what their impact is on American democracy With research based on two years of in depth interviews participant observation and analysis of archival records this volume offers proof that it is possible to build successful long term political coalitions among improbable allies The book investigates both the strengths and weaknesses of this model of advocacy and concludes that the presence of religious advocacy groups in the political process offers substantial benefits of representation concern for underrepresented issues and groups and the development of networks of social capital Interfaith Advocacy is grounded in the theoretical literature of political science but also accessible to all readers who have an interest in political advocacy state politics or religion and politics

Psychiatric Aspects of Abortion Nada Logan Stotland, 1991 Abortion is a highly complicated issue that raises a cross section of questions Is abortion related to a woman s economic status Do abortions really confer reproductive freedom for women To address these questions the contributors to this book summarize research studies on the psychiatric effects of abortion including the long term psychiatric impact and the psychological consequences of denied abortion illegal abortion and unwanted
